WGS 321: Feminist Perspectives: Race, Identity, Culture
10:00 - 12:20, MTWR, June 23 - July 20
Examines intersections of race and ethnicity, class, sexuality, and gender in the history and lives of United States women of color. Explores definitions of community, culture, and identity.

WGS 341: Women, Work and Class
12:00 - 2:20 pm, MTWR, July 20 - August 15
Explores contexts and cultural attitudes shaping the women's market and domestic labor including race, sexuality, age, and class as well as occupational segregation and control.

WGS 407: Girls on the Road
12:00 - 2:20 pm, MTWR, June 23 - July 20
Why are there so few well-known road trip stories about women? This course will uncover and rediscover fearless females who head out into uncharted territories. We'll consider what it means to embody a gender category and explore how the experience of travel creates spaces to challenge and change these categories.

WGS 407: Asian American Gender/Sexuality in Pop Culture
10:00 - 12:20, MTWR, July 21 - August 15
Explores Asian American gender and sexuality in popular culture from early Hollywood films to contemporary TV series and new media.