A TALK BY
AUDRA SIMPSON

Across the borders of time, place, and sentiment,

Simpson reflects upon the deep specificity and global illegibility of indigenous struggle and life in the face of death and dispossession in North America.

Audra Simpson, PhD, is an associate professor of anthropology at Columbia University. She is the author of Mohawk Interruptus: Political Life Across the Borders of Settler States (Duke University Press, 2014).
